INVITATION

The I3S 2004 will be held from 29 May to 3 June 2004 in Nanjing, one of the seven great ancient capitals of China. The Organizing Committee cordially invites you and your colleagues to participate in this symposium. The venue of I3S 2004 will be in the heart of city and thus allowing for easy access to various parts of Nanjing. We will also organize one exciting free tour for participants to explore the beauty of Chinese city.

Please submit abstracts online at both www.mdpi.net/sensors and hxju@nju.edu.cn. The deadline for submission has been postponed to 16 March 2004, after Pittcon 2004. The special issue of SENSORS is going to include selected papers presented at I3S 2004. Full papers should be submitted to the Asian Editor: Professor Huangxian Ju, Department of Chemistry, Nanjing University, Nanjing 210093, China; Email: hxju@nju.edu.cn; Tel & Fax: +86-25-83593593 to be refereed in accordance with the high standards set by the journal. Please indicate clearly that your paper will be submitted to SENSORS for publication. The deadline for receipt of full papers is 29 May 2004.

We will serve all participants to book room at a three or four-star hotel with a preferential price. Rooms are limited and reservation will be made on first-come-first-served basis. Participants may choose to share a room with another person at half price. Free food will be provided during the symposium. Detailed accommodation information will be provided when we send the official invitation letters to all foreign registrants for visa on March 20, 2004.

We look forward to welcoming you in Nanjing at I3S 2004, and will try our utmost in making your trip a rewarding and memorable experience.

Welcome to the Second International Symposium on Sensor Science

ISS 2004

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

Conference Chairman:

Professor Hongyuan Chen
(Nanjing University)

Executive Chairman:

Professor Huangxian Ju
(Nanjing University)

International Coordinator:

Dr. Shukun Lin (MDPI, Switzerland)
Dr. Francis Muguet (ENSTA, France)

Members:

Professor Jun Chen (Nanjing University)
Professor Yi Pan (Nanjing University)
Professor Qianqun Zhuang (NNSFC)
Professor Genxi Li (Nanjing University)
Professor Junjie Zhu (Nanjing University)
Dr. Xueji Zhang (WPI, Inc. USA)
Professor Xinhua Xia (Nanjing University)

SYMPOSIUM TOPICS

Electrochemical sensors. Electrical sensors.
Optical sensors, Laser sensors. Carbon nanotubes.
Sensors in aqueous solutions and liquids. Biosensors.
Sensors in medicine. pH sensors. Corrosion sensors.
Gas sensors. Ceramic sensors. Sensors for environmental monitoring. Nanosensors. Actuators.
Sensors Analysis software.

LANGUAGE

The official language of the symposium will be English. No translation or interpretation services will be provided.

DATES & DEADLINES

Second circular: February 26, 2004

Invitation letters for visa: March 20, 2004 (sent to all foreign registrants)

Final circular & detailed program: May 15, 2004

Symposium begins: 29 May 2004

Deadline for abstract submission: March 16, 2004

Notice of acceptance: March 20, 2004

Deadline for manuscript submission: 29 May 2004

Notice of acceptance in the proceedings: 25 June, 2004

REGISTRATION AND DETAILS

All participants of the conference are required to register. Except for invited speakers, all other participants should pay the registration fee. Advanced registration and details can be gotten at <http://www.mdpi.net/sensors/ISS2004/toc.html>.
Please visit our homepage. Payment can be made by obtaining a bank draft in US dollars or Euro and mail
it to Professor Huangxian Ju.
